

CODE OF CONDUCT

The purpose of this report is to give board members and its advisors rules as to their standard of conduct, duties, and best practice in fulfilling their commitments to the organization. the individuals should completely comply to these rules.

1. Members of the board must treat all other member of the management, coaches, parents and players with respect and always act in a professional manner.
2. Members of the board must act and make decisions in the best interests of the organization and its members.
3. Members of the board ought to not apply any impact to increase any special treatment for themselves or their families.
4. Members of the board must forgo public analysis, immediate or aberrant, of other individuals within the board or training staff. This incorporates emails, text messages and online platforms such as social media.
5. Members of the board must respect and support confidentiality of all matters disclosed at the meetings, exclusion applies when authorized by other members of the board.
6. Members of the board must not receive any financial benefits or gifts.
7. Members of the board must schedule to spend due amount of time for monthly meetings. A minimum attendance of 70 percent to meetings is required. Resolve immediate issues and apply changes if required.
8. Members of the board will hold on to and complete board's agreed decisions, regardless of whether they personally agree or not. These decisions should be communicated in a unified manner.
9. Should a Member of the board feel they are not ready to comply to these rules, they should either discuss the reason with the secretary of the organization or leave from the board.
10. With respect to portrayal of the organization at meetings internal or external, board member's statements must be in line with the already agreed policy positions of the board. Where this is not the case, the board member must make clear that statements are made in personal capacity.

CODE OF CONDUCT

I completely understand the arrangements point by point above. I consent to maintain the Code of Conduct completely.

MEMBER

BOARD MEMBER POSITION

WITNESS

DATE